

News Advisory

May 12, 2006
Contact:
Christine Warren
Utah Department of Health
801-538-6285

UDOH Recognizes Utah's Outstanding Emergency Medical Services Professionals

- What: The Utah Department of Health's Bureau of Emergency Medical Services (EMS) will hold an awards ceremony to recognize individuals and teams who have demonstrated outstanding commitment and service within their communities while serving on the front line of emergency medical incidents. Awards will be given in 13 categories recognizing individuals, teams and critical incidents where remarkable EMS service was rendered.
- Who: Dr. David Sundwall, Executive Director, Utah Department of Health
EMS Award winners and the people whose lives they have saved.
- When: Monday, May 15, 2006
10:00 a.m.
- Where: Salt Lake Community College
Miller Campus
Karen Gale Miller Conference Center
9750 South 300 West
Sandy, Utah
- Photo: Many of the individuals and their families who were saved and helped by those receiving awards will be at the event. They will have the opportunity to thank those who provided emergency medical care to them.

Video and Photo opportunities available

###